William F. Buckley

Buckley to speak on Avila campus Wednesday

William F. Buckley, Jr., editor of the prestigious "National Review", host of PBS's "Firing Line", author, lecturer, and the pre-eminent conservative intellectual of the day, will be this year's guest speaker in the Harry S. Truman Distinguished Lecture Series at Avila College on September 15, 1976 at 8:00 p.m. in the Goppert Theater.

Avila College provides the funds for the lecture series so that students may see and hear, in person, prominent figures of today speaking on topics of national concern.

There is no admission fee and no reserved seating, so plan to get there early.

Faculty presents recital Sept. 17

A faculty recital is scheduled Sept. 17 at 8:00 p.m. in Goppert theater. The featured performers are: Sister Olive Louise Dallavis, Sister de La Salle McKeon, Dr. William Louis, Mary Ann Caffery and Mary Christian.

The first section of the program consists of Mary Christian and Sister De La Salle performing Slavonic Dance, No. 2 by Anton Dvorak, Op. 46, Sonata by Francis Poulenc, 1. Prelude, 2. Rustique, 3. Final. This will be followed by some Cole Porter selections arranged by Trude Rittman. These are I LOVE YOU, from Mexican Hayride, IN THE STILL OF THE NIGHT from Rosalie, WUNDERBAR from Kiss Me Kate. The second section of the program will feature selected readings by Dr. Louis.

The third section of the program will be Sister Olive Louise Dallavis singing Song to Saint Mary by Joseph Marx, LOVE'S PHILOSOPHY by Roger Quilter, THE ROAD NOT TAKEN by Herbert Elwell, and VOCE DI DONNA from La Gioconda by Ponchielli.

The next section of the program will be selected readings by Dr. William Louis.

The final selections will be performed by Mary Ann Caffery and Sister de La Salle. These are Jeux D' Enfants by George Bizet, and Lerner Lowe selections arranged by Trude Ritterman. These are: I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT, THE RAIN IN SPAIN, and SHOW ME.

Sister Olive Louise Dallavis is President of Avila College. She received her Bachelors Degree from Fontbonne College and her Masters Degree from the University of Illinois.

Sister de La Salle McKeon is Professor of Music. She received her Bachelors Degree from Fontbonne College, her Masters Degree from De Paul University and her PhD. from Eastman School of Music.

Dr. William J. Louis is an Associate Professor of Speech and Theater, and Chairman of the Dept. of Fine Arts. He received his AB and Masters Degree from Boston College and his PhD. from Stanford University.

Mary Ann Caffery is an Avila graduate. She is currently teaching theory and piano.

Mary Christian graduated from Avila. She teaches at St. Peters and is a part-time piano instructor at Avila.

Soul Festival at Crown Center, Oct. 1, 2, 3

The Black Soul Festival '76 sponsored by George Washington Carver Neighborhood Center will be presented October 1, 2, and 3 in Crown Center Square.

Festivities on the three days will include art and cultural exhibits, live entertainment, drama, fashion shows, soul food and regularly scheduled programs designed for the enjoyment of the entire family.

Proceeds from the Festival will go to the George Washington Carver Neighborhood Center Building Fund.

One hundred people have worked for the past six months preparing for the first Black Soul Festival in celebration of Black heritage.

Over twenty-five delectable soul food items will be prepared by homemakers and cooks within the community.

Among the Exhibits will be presentations by the Black Archives, and the Muslims. The Kansas City Public Library will exhibit the Ramos Collection.

Bill Whitcomb, Executive Director of the George Washington Carver Neighborhood Center stated that "The Black Soul Festival is viewed as a way of bringing Black people together to work toward a concerned, worthwhile goal".

EDITORIAL:

A new look

The Avila student newspaper has changed; we hope these changes are reflective of the interests of today's students. We view Avila as a community within a larger community. As such there are numerous clubs, groups, and organizations whose interests and activities are an important concern to students. Our aim is to try to give extensive coverage to all of these groups.

A student newspaper should be a forum for free expression, inquiry and questions. We hope to provide this forum for all students and faculty. This forum will be provided within the framework of responsible journalism.

Several new and regular features will be added. These include: free classified ads available to all students and faculty, regular columns, features about various aspects of campus life and regular coverage of news.

Any student, organization, faculty or staff member having news, stories or information they wish published should submit them to the newspaper office located in the student activities office across from the Cafeteria line in Marion Center.

'The nameless newspaper'

Have you noticed we have no name? Due to a moment of non-inspiration we couldn't come up with one, so...we are asking your help. If you would like to see a title on our next issue instead of a lot of doodling space, drop your suggestions in our boxes located in the cafeteria and snack bar in Marian Center.

The newsstaff will check out each suggestion and whoever creates the catchiest title will win 2 free tickets to "Worlds of Fun."

There are lots of things that you can do with them: start a fire on a cold night, make a paper airplane, actually use them for having "worlds of fun", or, better yet, take the newspaper staff along as they really could use some "fun"! Whatever, get your suggestions in by Wednesday, September 22, 1976, and you'll make us happy to make you happy.

In case of a tie, there will be a drawing. Please put your name and phone number on the ballot, please.

Activity fee clarified

Many people forget that the many things comprising a college education total up to an enormously high price. At registration it suddenly dawns upon you that you are paying a significant amount for the experience. And just what are you paying for? It is really hard to say. There are so many little items (books!) here and there that you almost lose track of where your money is being spent. One of the things you have paid for is called the Student Activity Fee. Most students do not know why they have been assessed this fee, nor what it entails. The matter deserves some clarification.

The Activity Fee of $20 (per semester) is collected by the College on behalf of its students and is to be used for programmes, activities, and services in the interests of the College community. Some of the items covered by the fee are: the newspaper, student union board, clubs and organizations, health services, and intramural athletics. A copy of the budget is printed below. (It is only illusory that some programmes and activities will not be funded this year. These have been consolidated with other funds.) The fee is not designed or intended to fund certain other activities and functions which are primarily tbe responsibility of the school's curriculum or administration.

Although the college administration is responsible for these funds, a Student Activity Fee Board has been established as a student channel into the college's administration of these funds. The Board works in conjunction with the Director of Student Life Activities, the Dean of Students, and the Student Council to recommend, review its decisions. Membership on the Board is representative of the student body. It consists of various students elected and appointed at large and also includes 3 faculty and administrative representatives.

One important responsibility of the Board is to inform the student body on a periodic basis as to the status and uses of the fee. However, it is also the responsibility of the students to keep open the lines of communication, to let the Board know of their desires and to inform the Board as to the consequences of any of their actions.

Student host program

Guiding tours of the Avila campus, explaining admissions procedures to prospective students, hosting banquets, and ushering at college theater productions are a few of the exciting chores that await the ten freshmen who are participating in the new student host-hostess program.

The program, still officially without a name, has been in the blueprints of the admissions department for over a year. Volunteers were sought through poster campaigns three times last year, but no students registered their interest. Therefore, the department decided to begin with incoming freshmen. Ten prospective volunteers were contacted and all ten acknowledged their interest by attending a meeting during orientation. After a two hour training session, the pilot group will be ready to begin their work.

Will Chatham, the director of admissions, will conduct the training session and he understands the virtues and problems of the program, because he is a product of a host program. During his college years he participated in a similar activity and found he liked the work. "The kick comes when you notice the people that you've given tours and talked with enrolling as new students in the fall," explained Mr. Chatham. In his senior year of college when job hunting began, he found that the program had not only provided enjoyment, but also practical experience for a full-time job in an admissions department.

The admissions department is still interested in students who want to help. Being a host or hostess can not only help classmen to become involved on campus, meet administrative personnel as individuals, acquire practical experience for future work, but most important to help other prospective students by giving them opinions and objective information about college life and courses. Will Chatham conveyed, "The honesty and candidness that students have by nature is good, and I want Avila represented that way."

by Debbie Markway

Student Nurse Organization

The purpose of ASNO is "to aid in the development of the individual student and to urge nursing students as future health professionals to be aware of and to contribute to improving the health care of all people." The nursing students participate in community affairs and other projects such as the Swine Flu Vaccination Project, workshops and even do fun things like having a Christmas party.

The president of ASNO is Vicki Frank.

Co-Ed Volleyball

Volleyball is a growing sport, so come and get into the action.

Intramurals will be held September 20, to October 21, on Monday and Thursday, at 5:30 and at 6:15 p.m., at the southwest corner of Avila College.

Represent your Dorm Floor, or a group. Get your teams together NOW! If you don't have a team, COME ANYWAY, we'll find you one!

Sign up your team at the Marian Center Information Booth by September 15, and look for the time when your team plays on the Intramural Board.

When planning your strategy, remember there can be only three men on a court at a time.

Newspaper Staff

This year's newspaper staff is really going to take off. The staff plans to produce twelve issues per semester. They have a new office across from the cafeteria. Caroline Adams is the editor and she will welcome any person interested in helping put out the as yet nameless newspaper. Please call Caroline at ext. 226 Monday through Thursday 3-5 p.m.

Campus Ambassadors

The purpose of the Campus Ambassadors is to help with admissions, to provide hosts and hostesses for tour guides, and to participate in promotional campaigns.

This is a volunteer group run entirely by students. The advisor is Will Chatham.

Anyone interested in participating in this program can contact the Admissions Office in Blasco Hall.

Other intramurals this semester will be ... Powder Puff Football, Billiards, and Pool. Powder Puff Football will be a club team and will begin to play against other colleges shortly. Look for further information concerning Powder Puff Football on the bulletin board.

Get Into Sports at Avila!

Inter Faith Service

The Inter-Faith service happens on Saturday nights in the Marion Center. It is based on ways to talk to God and ways God talks to you through music, scripture, personal accounting, and sharing communion. It sponsors Ecumenical gatherings and volunteer services and other activities. Sister Ruth may be contacted for further information.

Student Government

Every student at Avila is a member of the student government. The purpose of SGA is to promote unity and to act as a means of communication between the students, faculty, staff and administration with respect to campus problems, issues and activities. SGA president is John Wagner.

Volleyvall

Volleyball anyone? Any Avila student who enjoys playing volleyball is eligible to join. Practices are at St. Thomas More in the evening. Contact Pam Bowen, 942-3591.

Cheerleaders

Anyone interested in becoming a cheerleader for the men's basketball team contact Mary Lu Martin, Ridgway, room 518.

Powderpuff Football

The purpose of powderpuff football is primarily to have fun. They have practices in the evening and games on Saturdays. Avila's biggest rival, Rockhurst, will be the opposing team on Homecoming, October 23.

To join, contact Barb Duff or Pat Ernst.

Diet Group

If enough people are interested, this organization will be sponsored by Jay Bopp. It is based on behavior modification techniques and will meet one hour per week for six to eight weeks. If interested, leave name and times able to attend meetings with the secretary in the counseling office.

Sociology Club

This organization is primarily for Sociology majors. They meet once a month and discuss career information and have various activities such as bar-be-ques, speakers and movies. Caroline Adams is president, Regina Hill is vice-president, and Mimi Fasenmeyer is program coordinator.

The Student Life program here at Avila is dedicated to creating opportunities for personal growth for the entire college community. One significant way to facilitate this growth is through campus organizations. If you have specific interests or concerns which cannot be met through groups listed, please stop by the Student Life Office and we will make every effort to accommodate your needs.

Outdoorsman Club

The Outdoorsman Club plans recreational outings for the year. Their trips are determined by student interest and may include hiking, skiing, camping and canoeing. Interested persons may contact Kathy Noonan, 942-0346, or Student Life office, ext. 227.

Council for Exceptional Children

This is a National organization open to Special Education majors. The purpose of the CEC is to improve the preparation of all professionals dealing with exceptional children and youth, to service exceptional children and youth, and to inform the public of educational needs. CEC activities include: conventions, speakers, films and parties for exceptional children. Kathy McClanahan is president.

American Chemical Society

The objectives of the ACS are to provide opportunities for students of chemistry, chemical engineering, medical technology, and other related fields to have access to chemical journals, news letters, conferences, films and employment clearinghouses. If anyone is interested please contact Jane Carpenter, Candy Andreasen or ACS advisor, Larry Sullivan.

Psychology Club

The theme this year is "BEING IN THE FUTURE." A meeting is planned for Friday, Sept. 24, 1976 at 7:00 p.m. at Dr. LeVine's house. For details call ext. 267, or contact Lou Perkins, president, through The Student Life Activities office, ext. 227.

French Club

"Les amis de la France" cultivates enthusiasm for the French people, their customs and their language at Avila. The club holds weekly meetings plus monthly events such as Mardi Gras, French Fairs and French Club banquets. A trip to France is planned for May.

Membership is open to faculty and students. For more information contact Sister Virginia, Mary Strick or Bill Helling.

Society for the Advancement of Management

SAM, formed to help further the student's development of managerial skills offers the opportunity to tour local industries, to hear guest speakers, and to coordinate classroom activities with the activities of the organization. President, Bob Stence; Vice - president, Shelly Zerman or advisor Larry Lewis may be contacted regarding membership and specific activities.

Ethnic Student Association

The purpose of the ESA is to create an awareness on campus of the different ethnic cultures. ESA activities include dances, lectures, picnics, exhibits and developing an Ethnic Resource Center.

Social Work Club

The Social Work Club helps provide opportunities for all students interested in social work to get together, to hear guest speakers, to obtain information regarding social work for students and faculty and to sponsor fund raising events for special concerns. Members participate in workshops and all club activities and attend conventions. Dottie Cebula may be contacted for additional information at 761-4276.

The American Society of Medical Technologists

All students interested in the profession of Medical Technology are welcome to join.

The ASMT activities include co-sponsorship of the Avila Blood Donor Club, hosting the Departmental Christmas Party and attending the State AASMT Convention in April. Julie Vienhage or John Grace may be contacted if you are interested in becoming a member.

Student Government Association

If you are a new student at Avila College or maybe just don't know what's going on, you might be asking yourself this question: "What is student government?"

Student government is YOU. Every student of the Avila campus is automatically a part of SGA. Those students of the campus who represent the SGA make up the Student Council.

In March an election is held and two senators from each of the seven departments on campus are elected by the entire student body to be on the Student Council.

These senators hold department meetings and attend Student Council meetings. There are senators representing both full and part-time students.

The goals of the Student Council this year are better department meetings, to find out what YOU, the student, are interested in, and to reach out to the community to let them know how Avila benefits the community.

The Student Council executives are:

Chairman - John Wagner

Secretary - Elaine Schmidt

Treasurer - Lisa Slutter

Student Union Board - Evette Landor

Advisors: Dean Cupkie, Don Madelung

These people are here to work with YOU to make Avila College a great place to be!

A world of potential

Life in the residence hall

Education is a living process of discovery and awareness. It is much more than memorizing facts, analyzing theories, and projecting trends. It is not merely the act of uncovering data. It includes putting together—relating—trusting — risking — hoping — discovery. To risk and discover is to find out more about yourself and others. It is to be, to reveal, to magically touch all that can be in the world of potential.

That is what the Residence Halls at Avila College are all about—the world of potential. Our Residence Hall Program is designed to offer each resident a challenging living-learning environment in which each person has the opportunity to grow and discover that individual potential within the limitation of group living.

Residence Halls have been on this campus since 1965, with the completion of Carondelet Hall. Ridgway Hall was built in 1970. The physical structure of the buildings are identical. Each hall has 62 double rooms, three (3) Resident Assistant rooms, and one (1) Residence Hall Director apartment. There are informal lounges and kitchenettes, as well as laundry facilities and storage rooms on each floor.

Within the last four years, the concept of student staffing has evolved as a viable means of operating the Residence Halls. Currently, there is a full-time Director of Housing who is responsible for the over-all coordination and operation of the Residence Halls, as well as all phases of the Residence Hall Program.

Each hall is coordinated by a Residence Hall Director who is primarily responsible for working with the Residence Hall Staff and Residence Hall Government to develop a living-learning environment in which residents are free to risk and discover more about who they are, where they are going, and how to get there. Each Director has a staff of three (3) Resident Assistants who work closely with the residents on their respective floors, challenging each to become involved in the Residence Hall Program.

The Housing Staff is committed to the concept of growth through residence education; we are committed to that untapped world of potential. We are committed to sharing all the possibility, awareness, and discovery that world holds. . .

Bits 'n Pieces

This column will vary a bit from issue to issue. We will try to include notices of clubs and events on campus, a bit of harmless gossip, and some of this writer's opinions. So please bear with us until we have a firmer sense of direction.

Ready for another contest? The Avila student newspaper is sponsoring 2 this issue. One contest is to name the newspaper. The first prize is two tickets to Worlds of Fun. Leave all entries in the boxes in either the cafeteria or the student snack bar in Marion center.

Our second contest is designed to make our students more aware of the aura of elegance on this campus. Since Avila is just full of beautiful and some very rare works of art, one contest is simple. Just see how many works of art you can find and identify for us. The person with the most complete list wins dinner for two at McDonalds. (We are not cheap, just on a limited budget.)

Bring entries to the newspaper office located in Marion center or mail to Student Newspaper, Avila College, 11901 Wornall KCMO, attn. C. Adams.

The Presidents Council met Thursday Sept. 9th in the Barefoot room of Marion Center. Tom Lease led the group. They discussed how to register clubs, the Student activity Fee Board, and the Finance Committee fee board.

New services offered to clubs and orginizations this year are: Central Reservations and Central Supply. Central Reservations will handle scheduling and reservations for all groups on campus. This includes optional use of their audio-visual equipment and campus catering.

Central Supply will stock items such as ink markers, poster board, post cards, etc. This will eliminate the necessity of things like 29 cent checks.

These services will be available to all clubs and organizations on campus.

+ + + +

All clubs and organizations are to have either statements of purpose or constitutions into the director of Student Life office by Sept. 17. This is to obtain formal recognition on campus.

SPORTS CENTER
Kansas City

Intercollegiate sports begin at Avila

Avila college will begin intercollegiate play in three sports this semester with the opening activity only a couple of days away. On Saturday, September 18 the women's volleyball team will travel to Columbia College to open the 1976 season. The 10:00 a.m. match will open a 12-game schedule that includes 8 conference matches. Girls are needed to complete the team that will play until November 6. Anyone interested can contact Pam at home at 942-3591.

The Avila men's basketball team will begin their 27-game schedule on November 16 at home against Baptist Bible. Following the 7:30 contest, Avila will play its next 8 games on the road before returning home to face the defending District 16 champion, Southwest Baptist on December 11.

The highlight of the grueling schedule will be a February 2 meeting with 1975-76 NAIA tournament semifinalist, Marymount. The game is scheduled for Kemper Arena prior to the start of the Kansas City Kings NBA game.

All home games will begin at 7:30 with the exception of the Marymount game and a December 18 meeting with Baker that begins at 2:00.

The women's basketball team will begin play on November 30 at home against Missouri Western. Following the home opener, the girls will travel to Missouri Valley on December 1 and then take on the rival Rockhurst Hawks on December 4 at Mason-Halpin Fieldhouse.

After road games to Tarkio and Baker, Avila will return home with contests against William Jewell (Dec. 11) and Central Methodist (Dec. 17) That will be their final game until January 21, 1977.

The Missouri Valley, Tarkio and Baker road games will be preliminaries to the men's contests.

Powder Puff football

An event-filled Avila College intramural will "kickoff" with six Powder Puff football games. Included on the early fall schedule will be a coed volleyball tournament.

The football schedule will consist of 3 home and 3 road contests. Among the home games will be the first Homecoming in Avila history during the weekend of October 22-24. The highlight of the big weekend will be a game on Saturday, October 23 against arch rival Rockhurst.

The football team is being organized by Barb Duff and Pat Ernst. People interested may sign up at the information booth in Marian Center or contact Barb and Pat.

The coed volleyball will begin on September 20 with Pam Bowen at the controls. All interested students may sign up at the information booth or contact Pam at home (942-3591). The requirements are that you have 6 players on the court and no more than 3 men at a time. Players may sign up and be placed on a team or organize their own team.
